Natural Resources (the "Sub-Fund") is a sub-fund of Long Term Investment Fund (SIA) (the "Fund")

Class USD Class (the "Class") - ISIN: LU0301247234

The Fund has appointed FundPartner Solutions (Europe) S.A. as management company.

Objectives and investment policy

This Sub-Fund aims to provide long-term capital appreciation, primarily through investment in a portfolio of worldwide equity securities relating to natural resources.

The Sub-Fund is actively managed. The index S&P Global Natural Resources Net TR Index EUR is used for the calculation of the relative VAR. The Sub-Fund does not track the index and can deviate significantly or entirely from the benchmark index.

The Sub-Fund will mainly invest in equity and equity related securities (including convertible bonds) issued by companies worldwide which are involved in the natural resources sector and in structured products (as described in the prospectus) linked to the performance of the abovementioned securities. This includes companies whose main business is amongst others to produce, extract, refine, market natural resources, such as but not limited to: energy, mining or agro-alimentary sectors.

The choice of investments will neither be limited by geographical area (including emerging markets), nor in terms of currencies in which investments will be denominated. However, depending on financial market conditions, a particular focus can be placed in a single country and/or in a single currency and/or in a single natural resource.

The Sub-Fund may also invest up to 10% of its net assets in other open-ended undertakings for collective investment. The Sub-Fund may also invest in structured products, as further detailed in the prospectus, including structured products without embedded derivatives, correlated with changes in commodities (including precious metals) with cash settlement. These investments may not be used to elude the investment policy of the Sub-Fund.

Within the limits specified in the prospectus, the Sub-Fund may invest in Russia, through among others securities listed on the MICEX-RTS.

For hedging and for any other purposes, the Sub-Fund may use financial derivative instruments within the limits and descriptions set out in the prospectus. The use of derivative instrument may increase leverage and imply additional costs and risks.

Dealing Frequency

The net asset value for this Class is calculated every bank business day in Luxembourg. The cut-off time to submit subscription and/or redemption orders is 4 p.m. Luxembourg time on the last business day preceding the relevant valuation day.

Distribution Policy

The Class is cumulative. No dividend will normally be distributed.

Currency

The currency of the Class is USD.

Investment Horizon

The Sub-Fund is a high risk Sub-Fund aiming to provide capital growth. It may be suitable for investors who are seeking long term growth potential offered through investment in equities and it requires an investment horizon of at least 5 years.

Risk and reward profile

Risk Disclaimer

- This current risk profile is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Sub-Fund.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The lowest category, which corresponds to Number 1, cannot be regarded as being risk-free.
- The Sub-Fund does not provide any capital guarantee or asset protection measures.

Why is this Sub-Fund in this category?

The investment strategy of the Sub-Fund includes a commitment in share values worldwide. The main focus is on companies working with raw materials, in order to achieve long-term capital growth. Consequently, the risk/return indicator suits the underlying volatility of this share type.

Are there any other particular Risks?

- Liquidity risks: The Sub-Fund may invest part of its assets in less liquid securities. Those are securities that cannot easily be sold or exchanged for cash without a substantial loss in value in certain market conditions. Those securities also cannot be sold quickly because of a lack of ready and willing investors or speculators to purchase the asset.

- Counterparty risks: The Sub-Fund can conclude various transactions with contractual partners. If a contractual partner becomes insolvent, it can no longer or can only partly settle unpaid debts owed to the Sub-Fund.
- Credit risks: The Sub-Fund may invest a portion of its assets in debt securities. The issuers of these debt securities may become insolvent, which will mean that the securities will lose all or some of their value.
- Risks from the use of derivatives: The Sub-Fund may use financial derivatives instruments which may result in the Sub-Fund being leveraged and may result in material fluctuations in the value of the Sub-Fund. Leverage on certain types of transactions including derivatives may impair the Sub-Fund's liquidity, cause it to liquidate positions at unfavourable times or otherwise cause the Sub-Fund not to achieve its intended objective.

Leverage occurs when the economic exposure created by the use of derivatives is greater than the amount invested resulting in the Sub-Fund being exposed to a greater loss than the initial investment.

- Operational risks: The Sub-Fund may fall victim to fraud or criminal acts. It may suffer losses as a result of misunderstandings or mistakes by employees of the Management Company or by external third parties or may be damaged by external events, such as natural disasters.
